

Education and Veterans Services Education Team

"You've been incredibly helpful! Thanks for taking care of those who are moving on to the next chapter." --USCG CAPT

"THANK YOU for your OUTSTANDING professionalism and block of instruction." -- Installation TAP Program Coordinator

"Your team member showed compassion and ensured the servicemember's questions were answered and understood. My hat's off to her and appreciation to her professionalism" --Installation PFM

Navy Mutual Aid Association is the oldest federally recognized Veterans Service Organization (VSO). Navy Mutual is here to assist veterans and their families in securing federal benefits and is committed to educating servicemembers and their families on matters of financial security. We have been an approved DoD educator for over 40 years.

As DoD Approved Educators, Our Knowledgeable Team:

- *Provides unbiased tools and resources to over 30,000 servicemembers, veterans, and their families annually to help them make informed personal financial decisions.
- *Informs servicemembers of their life insurance options post-service, including SGLI/FGLI conversion options and VGLI.
- *Serves as subject matter experts on the DoD Survivor Benefit Plan, while explaining comprehensive survivor planning options utilizing earned benefits and entitlements.
- *Presents over 1,800 classes a year on military installations to support the financial literacy efforts of the Personal Financial Managers and Transition Coordinators.

Our accredited financial counselors are experts in DoD curriculum and programs and support the installation PFM programs by teaching Command Financial Specialist, Finances for Transitions, Million Dollar Sailor curriculum, and other required military touchpoints. We also support commands, leadership symposiums, CFS personnel, and family support programs with presentations customized to meet their specific needs.
